Hi Steve,

DOT visited and searched the area again on Friday and could not locate the truck (unclear whether they had a chance to visit yet last week before).

Is there general standard times you recommend they visit that we can be most sure it is demonstrating the ongoing violation?

Thanks so much

Thank you.

Ok, this is a different sort of vehicle selling food rather than a self contained food truck. I am wondering if our Dept. of Transportation has other rules that may apply here as well.

Is there a good email address we can communicate through for you?

Thanks so much
